

Bios for Ireland 2008 Tour

Dorothy Naylor, a retired diaconal minister, has participated in global exposure tours to India, Palestine and Israel, Cuba, Nicaragua and Mexico. Her ministry experience includes inner city social ministry, all aspects of congregational ministry with a focus on education and social ministry, and most recently intentional interim ministry.

After many years in congregational ministry, Garth Mundle became principal at St. Stephen's College where he began leading global exposure tours in 1987. More recently he has been doing the same as a volunteer for the Centre for Christian Studies with a focus on Africa and India. For several years prior to their retirement, Garth and Dorothy worked together as an interim ministry team. Both have travelled in Ireland.

Caryn Douglas brings many years experience as an educator and facilitator. She will be helping the participants in the trip with on going reflection on their experience. Caryn is a Diaconal Minister in the United Church and is just completing a 10 year term as Principal of the Centre for Christian Studies. Her ministry experience includes inner city social ministry, First Nations community ministry and extensive educational ministry. She has been privileged to travel to many parts of the world, but this will be her first experience in Ireland.
