

APPLICATION FORM FOR THE RUTHERFORD/MEYERS SCHOLARSHIPS

Gertrude Rutherford Scholarship

An annual award of up to $2,400.

Background

Gertrude L. Rutherford, was the Principal of the United Church Training School from 1934 to 1946. This scholarship fund was established in April 25, 1962, through an anonymous gift that was given in memory of her. This award is for graduates of the United Church Training School, Anglican Women's Training College, Covenant College or the Centre for Christian Studies who are proceeding to a degree in Christian (religious) Education. The award is an expression of Gertrude L. Rutherford's concern that more women have the opportunity for postgraduate study, and that the Church have women with academic qualifications in the field of Christian Education and theology to help meet the churches' needs for leadership.

Terms of the Trust

A scholarship to further the studies of

- a graduate(s) of the Centre for Christian Studies,
- who is proceeding to a Degree in religious education,
- on the basis of recognized ability and academic standing
- and financial need.

Application Deadline: May 1

Dr. and Mrs. A.J.W. Myers Scholarship

An annual award of up to $600.

Background

Beginning in 1968, Dr. Myers gave five annual gifts of $1000 to set up a scholarship fund, the income from which is to provide an award for Centre graduates to do post graduate work in religious education. Dr. Myers was Professor of Religious Education at Hartford Theological Seminary for many years. He is the author of more than 25 religious, historical, and children's books. He died at the age of 97 in December, 1975.

Terms of the Trust

A scholarship fund for post-graduate work in religious studies. Awards can be made to students in the Centre for Christian Studies program who

- have a university degree or
- to graduates who are pursuing post-graduate work in religious studies at an institution other than the Centre for Christian Studies.

Application Deadline: May 1
