

Gertrude Rutherford Scholarship

An annual award of up to $2,400.

Gertrude L. Rutherford, was the Principal of the United Church Training School from 1934 to 1946. This scholarship fund was established in April 25, 1962, through an anonymous gift that was given in memory of her.

This award is for graduates of the United Church Training School, Anglican Women's Training College, Covenant College or the Centre for Christian Studies who are proceeding to a degree in Christian (religious) Education. The award is an expression of Gertrude L. Rutherford's concern that more women have the opportunity for post-graduate study, and that the Church have women with academic qualifications in the field of Christian Education and theology to help meet the churches' needs for leadership.

In determining the recipient of the award, the committee will be using the following criteria:

Applicant demonstrates:

- leadership potential in the field of Christian Education, as demonstrated by experience and through references;
- commitment and ongoing work focusing on Christian Education in a congregational or other setting;
- a capacity for innovation in the area of Christian Education;
- recognized ability and academic standing;
- financial need.

In keeping with the interests of Gertrude Rutherford, preference will be given to women applicants.

Graduate degrees through the joint CCS diploma/degree programs at St. Stephen's College or The Faculty of Theology at the University of Winnipeg are among the programs that will be considered eligible for this scholarship.

Dr. and Mrs. A.J.W. Myers Scholarship

An annual award of up to $600.

Beginning in 1968, Dr. Myers gave five annual gifts of $1000 to set up a scholarship fund, the income from which is to provide an award for Centre graduates to do post graduate work in religious education. Dr. Myers was Professor of Religious Education at Hartford Theological Seminary for many years. He is the author of more than 25 religious, historical, and children's books. He died at the age of 97 in December, 1975.

In determining the recipient of the award, the committee will be using the following criteria:

Applicant demonstrates:

- on-going experience as a religious educator, particularly with children or young people
- a commitment to the field of religious education
- leadership potential in the area of religious education
- recognized ability and academic standing
- financial need.

Graduate degrees through the joint CCS diploma/degree programs at St. Stephen's College or The Faculty of Theology at the University of Winnipeg will be considered among those programs eligible for this scholarship.
