

CONSENT FORM FOR DIACONAL PROFILE

_____, is a final year student in the Centre for Christian Studies.
(name of student)

One of the final year assignments involves writing a profile of a person who has lived and worked in diaconal ministry. She/he is asking you to participate in an interview to discuss your life in diaconal ministry.

It is my understanding that

- any changes or developments that might influence my informed consent will be brought to my attention and my further consent sought
- there is no penalty involved should I decide to discontinue or interrupt my involvement
- I have not been misled, by either incomplete disclosure or temporary concealment, about the purpose of this interview
- the research is being conducted through a one-to-one interview involving open-ended questions, personal sharing and discussion
- there will be no material inducement or financial compensation offered for my participation in this study
- there will be no social or professional inducements or disincentives, no physical stress, no mental discomfort, no attempts to change my behaviour, no third party risk, as a result of my involvement
- I am entitled to report any adverse responses or dissatisfaction from my involvement in this interview to the Centre for Christian Studies

The written report of these sessions will be available for my perusal and feedback. The Centre for Christian Studies would like to keep diaconal profiles on file in their library.

Please check one of the following:

- I agree to storage of my profile and picture in the CCS library in order that they may be used in future research and classroom programming.
- I would like to see a copy of my profile and picture before I agree to storage of my profile and picture in the CCS library in order that they may be used in future research and classroom programming.
- I do not agree to storage of my profile and picture in the CCS library.

For interviews which have been tape or digitally recorded, please check one of the following:

- I agree that any recording of my interview, after use by the student in preparing the profile, will be sent to United Church or Anglican Church archives in order that they may be used in future research.
- I want to have any recording of my interview destroyed, after use by the student in preparing the profile .

My participation in this study has not been coerced, manipulated, constrained or be coopted by undue influence. I am involved with my informed consent.

Name:

Signature:

Date: